

THE ANIMEROS

Hailing from Austin, Texas, The Animeros craft a genre-blending sound that drifts between the lush jungles of Colombia, the palm-lined streets of 1960s coastal Mexico, and the dusty cantinas of West Texas. Since forming in 2024, their distinctive style and captivating live shows have struck a chord with audiences and tastemakers alike—including producer Dan Auerbach.

PRESS HIGHLIGHTS

Rolling Stone France Playlist

“Their blend of Colombian, Mexican, and West Texas influences weaves a sonic tapestry blending boleros, psychedelia, and cumbia.” – KUTX

“On these tracks and others, the group’s fusion sound flairs with a touch of drama, at times conjuring the eerie quality of a ghost town honky-tonk, at others the luscious greenery of a bustling tropical beach bar.” – The Austin Chronicle

“Their music transforms any space into a living ritual of rhythm and connection, pulling listeners into a shared, erratic moment where tradition and modernity collide on the dance floor.” - LCKD Mag

“No lyrics are needed here as their instruments speak volumes, stirring emotion and evoking vivid scenes without a single word. This is music that hits the bones, that moves you before you even know why.” – Remezcla
